5th Period - Good Practices

Friendship
Boundaries in Communication	Outer boundaries
Self control	The invisible boundaries that are not the same for everyone.
Supportive factors	Closeness Yoga
Reflections Conversations	Flexible boundaries Are boundaries in some situations not the same as the day before? Do different conditions have something to do with different boundaries?
Stories to tell	The lion and the mouse
Projects	Practice being close to others by drawing pictures on a friend's back – Friend guesses what picture it is Make experiences with telling stories to a friend – who then “retells” the story. Is what one says the same as what the next one hears? What can cooperation accomplish – making a friends-net with yarn (that goes from one child to another making a “spider web”) and the project is to keep a balloon flying over the net. Painting friends' hands with your own hands and making “printed hands friends chain”
